PROFILE

I am a Front-End Developer passionate about modern design, smooth interactions, and responsive user interfaces. I focus mainly on front-end development but also have a basic understanding of back-end concepts. I have worked with React Native, React.js, Next.js, TypeScript, and JavaScript. I also have photo and video editing skills that add a creative touch to my work. I am adaptable, detail-oriented, and always eager to learn new frameworks and programming languages to grow in the tech industry.
